

Sarah R. Lustig

Associate | Los Angeles

slustig@lcwlegal.com

Tel: 310.981.2071

EXPERIENCE

Based in the Los Angeles office, Sarah advises and represents Liebert Cassidy Whitmore clients in all matters pertaining to labor and employment law, including discrimination, harassment, leaves of absence, privacy, workplace violence, wage and hour issues, labor and management relations, discipline and termination. An experienced litigator, Sarah has successfully defended public and private employers at the administrative, trial, and appellate levels. Sarah has advised clients on access and accommodation issues under the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Unruh Civil Rights Act, the Disabled Persons Act and the Fair Housing Act. Additionally, Sarah has advised educational institutions regarding all aspects of labor and employment law. Prior to joining LCW, Sarah represented public entity clients in a San Diego-based law firm.

Sarah has drafted and revised numerous handbooks and a wide variety of workplace policies. Additionally, she has conducted frequent sexual harassment prevention trainings and drug and alcohol-free workplace trainings.

Sarah received her B.S., from the University of California, Davis; her M.S., from San Diego State University; and her J.D., from the University of California, Davis School of Law.

EDUCATION

JD, University of California, Davis School of Law

MS, San Diego State University

BS, University of California, Davis

LEGAL EXPERTISE

Employment Law

Labor Relations & Collective Bargaining

Litigation Services

Public Education

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

LITIGATION

Lee v. City of Montebello (2016) - Summary judgment obtained in this first amendment retaliation and Section 1983 due process case.

AFFILIATIONS

California Council of School Attorneys (CCSA)

PUBLICATIONS

Smell the Bouquet of Legal Issues, Apr 11, 2019

The Thin Blue Line, Jan 28, 2019